

Undissected low-traffic areas with a minimum size of 100 km² as a percentage of Germany's total land area

* Due to very large differences in the underlying traffic volume data between the individual survey years, the comparability of the values in the time series is limited.

Source: Data basis - Federal Ministry of Transport, Building and Digital Infrastructure 2015; Federal Highway Research Institute 2015; Federal States 2015; Cartography: Federal Agency for Cartography and Geodesy 2015; Calculation of undissected low-traffic areas (UZVR): Federal Agency for Nature Conservation 2018